SPONSORSHIP AND REGISTRATION OPPORTUNITIES

Inspiring Event. Sponsorships and Registrations support The Sophia Institute.

Imagine an extraordinary gathering of women empowering one another to bring hope, healing, and transformative change into our own lives and to the world around us, inspiring each other to awaken to our full potential and to deepen our partnerships with men to be effective co-creators of the future. Pat Mitchell, Co-Curator of TEDWomen and CEO of Board of the Sundance Film Festival and former CEO of PBS, will serve as the keynote speaker at the inaugural WOMEN RISING! to be held February 7 – 9, 2019.

We are living in a profound moment in human history. More and more women are awakening to what they are called to and using their gifts, talents and capacities to be catalysts to work together to create a more just and conscious world. Even now, though, women continue to be the most untapped resource on the planet.

The Sophia Institute presents WOMEN RISING! to bring together women from around the country for exploration, discovery, and transformation with female leaders who model authenticity and are living lives of powerful purpose. Inspirational women thought leaders will help connect our minds and hearts to our own inner wisdom as well as offer new pathways and practices to co-create a better world for ourselves.

Join us here, in historic Charleston, for a gathering of women, working with these seasoned women leaders, as we begin to transform our lives, our relationships, our workplaces, and our communities to live and lead with wisdom and power. WOMEN RISING! Soiree on November 28, 2018 will feature refreshments and hors d'oeuvres by local chef, high energy entertainment with Heather Rice, and great networking opportunities. The Soiree will serve as a kick-off for WOMEN RISING! a 3-day gathering to be held February 7 – 9, 2019. Featuring keynote speaker Pat Mitchell and an array of inspiring thought leaders, the gathering will serve as an opportunity for discovering, growing and networking as well as exploring Charleston with options for exclusive behind-the-scenes experiences.
